

RÉSUMÉ JOHANN STRAUSS ORCHESTRA FRANKFURT / FRANKFURT SYMPHONY

The Johann Strauss Orchestra Frankfurt respectively the Frankfurt Symphony was founded in 1986 by Günther Gräf. The orchestra is mainly composed of musicians from opera houses in the Rhine-Main area. The musical flexibility of the orchestra members allows the orchestra to perform concerts of all kinds (see programme formats) at the highest artistic level, which is repeatedly confirmed by an enthusiastic audience and the specialist press.

Depending on the musical occasion, the orchestra performs as Johann Strauss Orchestra Frankfurt or as Frankfurt Symphony. For events on a smaller scale, the orchestra is on stage as Ensemble of the Johann Strauss Orchestra Frankfurt or as Ensemble of the Frankfurt Symphony. In order to fulfill its musical tasks, it has access to its own sheet music archive, which includes approximately 5,500 music titles.

In addition to a large number of concert engagements in Germany, the orchestra also undertakes concert tours abroad (in the past, for example, to Spain in 1992 and to Seoul/South Korea in 2006 and 2007).
